

Stop managing AI. Start hiring it.

Nelvori gives founder-led teams a managed AI ops assistant that handles recurring briefings, meeting notes, and follow-up drafts on schedule. You receive the outputs. We run the system.

PILOT LENGTH

30 days

INCLUDED

3 managed AI agents

BEST FOR

Founder-led service firms

THE PILOT

Your first AI ops employee, operated by Nelvori.

The Founder Command Center Pilot is designed to prove whether AI agents can remove real recurring work from your business without adding another dashboard, tool, or prompt habit for you to manage.

FOUNDING CLIENT PRICE

$1,500-$2,500

30-day pilot. If you continue into a monthly managed AI Ops subscription, the pilot fee can be credited toward your first month.

THE FIRST THREE AGENTS

01

Morning Briefing

A daily or weekly briefing with meetings, priorities, open items, and follow-ups before the day starts.

02

Meeting Notes

Turns meeting transcripts or notes into clean summaries, decisions, owners, and next steps.

03

Follow-Up Drafter

Drafts client, prospect, or internal follow-ups in your voice so important threads keep moving.

WHAT IS INCLUDED

- Workflow discovery and pilot scoping
- Setup of 3 AI ops agents
- Output templates customized to your business
- Delivery to email, Slack, Asana, or Google Docs
- Weekly feedback and refinement

BEST FIT IF YOU HAVE

- Client follow-ups that live in your head
- Meetings that create scattered action items
- Weekly priorities or status updates to compile
- Founder-level work that repeats every week
- No appetite for another AI dashboard

Built for trust, not tinkering.

Nelvori is managed by a cybersecurity compliance practitioner, with a practical focus on access, logging, data boundaries, and human review where it matters.

Outcome after 30 days.

You will know which AI workflows are valuable, what outputs you trust, how much recurring work can be removed, and whether Nelvori belongs in your monthly operations.

Founding client terms.

A limited number of early clients receive preferred pilot pricing while Nelvori is tested with real businesses and refined around the workflows that matter most.

In exchange.

- Weekly feedback during the pilot
- Honest input on what works and what does not
- Permission for an anonymized case study if successful

BOOK A 20-MINUTE AI OPS FIT CALL

We will identify the first 2-3 workflows worth testing and decide whether the pilot is a fit.
